LEMON RICE

A simple and refreshing way of preparing rice. This is so convenient when you need a contrasting color or delicate flavor with an important main course.

2 1/2 cups canned chicken broth
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 clove garlic, slightly crushed
1 cup long-grain rice
1 tablespoon finely grated lemon zest
2 tablespoons chopped fresh dill
2 tablespoons unsalted butter
Freshly ground black pepper, to taste

1. Heat the broth, salt, and garlic in a heavy saucepan to boiling. Stir in the rice, cover, and simmer until the liquid is absorbed, about 20 minutes.

2. Remove from heat. Stir in the lemon zest and let stand covered for 5 minutes.

3. Remove the garlic. Gently stir in the dill and butter. Season to taste with pepper. Serve immediately.
