Location: Anoush'ella

35 West Newton Street, Boston

Cost: Pay your own way

In January join us at Anoush'ella featuring Eastern Mediterranean, Armenian Lebanese food of the owners' childhoods. The name means MAY IT BE SWEET. It's an expression of the love, pride and enjoyment that goes into serving someone who enjoys your food and thanks you.

Armenian food is quite different from other Middle Eastern dishes, and Anoush'ella gets rave reviews, so give it a try!

Culinary Guild Book Club: KITCHEN
CONFIDENTIAL by Anthony Bourdain

Tuesday, January 31, 6:30 PM

Location: TBD

Annual Chinese New Year

Not much more needs to be said about the mega-bestselling tell-all memoir by Anthony Bourdain. It's a shocking banquet of wild-but-true tales of life in the culinary trade, laying out his more than a quarter-century of drugs, sex, and haute cuisine.

It should be a hoot!

JOYFUL GARDEN

Join us for our traditional Chinese New Year get together, celebrating the year of the rabbit this year, during which we will dine on some of the area's best dim sum! There's even acres of free parking to make it even more pleasant.

You are welcome to invite friends, and we will do our best to try to arrange carpools.

Please contact Lisa Jacobs using the link below and include the names of your guests. Lisa will send a reminder email a few days beforehand confirming your attendance. Please include your cell phone, so we can communicate on the day of the event, if necessary.
